Dura Temp Corporation is pleased to announce the opening of its Sales Office in Miami, Florida in January 2011. Technical Specialist, Leonardo Marini, is based at this office to support customers in Latin America as well as customers in Spain and Portugal. Mr. Marini, who is fluent in Spanish and English, can quickly reach customers in these markets via direct flights from the Miami International Airport to all major cities in Latin America, Spain and Portugal. Maura Panos, also fluent in Spanish and English, is based at Dura Temp's headquarters in Holland, Ohio to provide in-house support for Mr. Marini and the customers in these markets.

Mr. Marini will be representing Dura Temp at Glassman Europe in Barcelona, Spain, May 25-26, 2011. Also representing Dura Temp at the Tradeshow will be Dave Rollins (President & CEO), Sherry Rollins (Vice-President & CFO), Jon Horner (Manager of Technical Services & Product Development), Erica Jaspers (Sales & Marketing Manager), and Bert Vandaele (Sales Engineer for the European Region-excluding Spain & Portugal). We invite you to visit our stand, to see our latest product developments!
